Dear Professor Goldman:

STAT
Thank you for passing to me your thoughtful letter to Thomas [redacted] recommending that the Central Intelligence Agency make public all of its reporting. As I am sure you will recognize, I am not yet in a position to make a considered evaluation of your proposal, but I shall bear it in mind in my overall examination of the way in which our intelligence system works.

I share your desire to prevent abuses of the government secrecy system. My previous government experience, however, convinces me of the need for some confidentiality in foreign policy support and formulation. You can be assured that, should I be confirmed as Director of Central Intelligence, I will work to attain a responsible secrecy system that serves only to protect legitimate national security interests.

Sincerely,

George Bush
